

WORLD YOUTH DAY

POPE BENEDICT XVI VISIT TO AUSTRALIA

Sydney, Australia 15 - 20 July 2008

In July 2008, Pope Benedict XVI will visit Sydney Australia to host the 11th International World Youth Day. Established in 1986 it is the largest gathering of young people the world has ever seen. Audiences from around the world will be tuning in to watch these proceedings.

GlobeCast Australia is offering its services for unilateral and ad-hoc coverage of WYD08. We are the leading provider of services for international broadcasters in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands, operating facilities and links that span the world.

Below are the rates available direct through GlobeCast Australia in comparison to EUROVISION for similar services.

Rates* for Tape Playout and Delivery (15 minutes)

	From Australia to Asia	From Australia to Europe	From Australia to America
GlobeCast Australia	AUD 225 <small>Uplink to AsiaSat 2</small>	AUD 465 <small>Fibre Sydney to London and Uplink to W1</small>	AUD 430 <small>Fibre Sydney to Los Angeles and Uplink to IS 9</small>
EUROVISION	AUD 1066 <small>Uplink to AsiaSat 2</small>	AUD 1226 <small>AsiaSat 2 -> W3A</small>	AUD 1386 <small>AsiaSat 2 -> NSS 806</small>

 Notes

- GlobeCast Australia rates are GST exclusive. All rates are rounded to the nearest Dollar.
- Exchange Rate as at Friday 13 June 2008 (Source: Bloomberg.com) 1 Australian Dollar (AUD) = 0.9383 US dollar (USD).
- GlobeCast Australia Tape Playouts are booked for minimum 15 minutes, with extensions charged in 5 minute increments.
- EUROVISION Tape Playouts are booked for minimum 10 minutes.

The above rates are a selection of the many services available.

SNG services are available on request. Please contact us for all your additional broadcast requirements.

Please Contact GlobeCast Australia Bookings
 John Fitt / Louise Hawthorne
 Telephone: + 61 2 8258 7979
 Fax: + 61 2 8258 7990
 Email: bookings@globecast.com.au